Parties

Miss May Kuneman delightfully entertained about 20 of her friends recently with a musical at her home on Myrtle avenue. The program was well rendered and consisted of various compositions by many of the old masters. Miss June Jiggs sang several very pretty solos and graciously responded to encores. A "Practice Contest" followed the program, in which Miss Hazel Kinney won the prize and Walter Vance drew the lucky member in "Functuality." Refreshments were served.

Thursday night the gymnasium class of the Y. W. C. A. held a most enjoyable picnic on the mesa, chaperoned by several of the teachers. The girls sang several songs, and played games, after which a sumptuous lunch was enjoyed. Those present were: Misses M. Alice Davis, Della Klefer, Vera Bretley, Foy Wood, Elizabeth Flora and Edna Goff, Gretz Palmer, Phyllis Eickman, Alfreda and Veda Eickman, Estelle Collard, Eva Stapleton, Alice Cook, Lena Butchsky, Jewel Dear, Florence Hanson, Bertha Miller, Dr. Ethel Ethridge, Dorothy Husbands, Nellie Porter, Lulu Bethea, Gay Golden, Lucy and Maggie Laughlin, and several of the old masters. A doll-dressing contest was a feature of the entertainment. Mrs. W. I. Watson receiving the prize for the best dressed doll. A three course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Charles A. Fox entertained recently with an informal afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. W. Tatum, who will leave the city soon for the summer. A doll-dressing contest was a feature of the entertainment. Mrs. W. I. Watson receiving the prize for the best dressed doll. A three course luncheon was served.

Josephine, the daughter of Mrs. Josephine Nations Morfit, entertained a number of her friends on Wednesday afternoon in celebration of her birthday anniversary. Nancy Williams received the first prize in the game of "honey" and Mary Mackoffin, the second. The dining table, where the refreshments were served, was prettily decorated in sweet peas and candles. In the center stood a large birthday cake. It contained many little trinkets which were cut by a number of the guests. The ice-cream was frozen in the shape of different animals. A number of pretty gifts were received by the little hostess.

Glen Holmes, car repairer for the T. & P. in El Paso, is making arrangements to leave for an extended visit to his home in Atlanta, Ga., in a few days.

Dinners and Luncheons

Miss Kate Adams was the honoree of a luncheon at the Beall school on Wednesday, which proved a perfect surprise to her. The luncheon was given by the teachers of the school after the school hours. In the center of the table was a large basket filled with yellow daisies. The place cards were hand painted in daisies. During the luncheon Miss Winifred Rose made a presentation speech and presented Miss Adams with a set of solid silver tea spoons. A gift from the teachers of the school. Miss Myra Prater, then asked the guest of honor if she would be "bunny" and pull the string. With that Miss Adams pulled the string and a kitchen shower was revealed beneath the daisies. Those present were: Misses Henrietta Shirley, Lillian Shook, Ruth Critchett, Elizabeth Blinn, Mary Messmer, Katherine Harper, Jeanette Humsey, Winifred Rose, Iduma Hughes, Francis Turpin, Harriet Rawlings, Bess Myers, Myra Prater and Mesdames Sadie Garrett and C. L. Watkins. The guests beside the teachers were Mesdames Roy N. Davis and Edith Mae.

Dances

An informal dance was given at the Post hall on Thursday evening by the officers and women of the patrol district. The dance was given complimentary to general James Parker, commanding the department of Texas. General Parker is a visitor at the post for a short time. The second band furnished the music for the dancing and after that was enjoyed, major and Mrs. John Winn, entertained a number of guests at dinner at their quarters. The guests from town were: Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Max Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kerr, Mesdames Pary Wright, Linnie Wolcott, and J. A. Buckner. Why is the soda cracker today such a universal food?

People ate soda crackers in the old days, it is true—but they bought them from a barrel or box and took them home in a paper bag, their crispness and flavor all gone.

Uneda Biscuit—soda crackers better than any ever made before—made in the greatest bakeries in the world—baked to perfection—packed to perfection—kept to perfection until you take them, oven-fresh and crisp, from their protecting package. Five cents.
